

THE PATHWAY...

Trail Length: 3.7 Miles (6 km)
Elevation Change: 200 feet (60 m)

Difficulty: Easy

Open To: Hiking & Cycling and horses in designated areas is a wide 3.7-mile trail linking the village of Oak Creek and Sedona. Along this pathway you'll enjoy fantastic views of Bell Rock, Twin Butte, and other landmarks. Most of the pathway has a wide, hard surface, but there are some steep hills too and some areas around Bell Rock are rocky and rough.

Share the Pathway

Hikers, cyclists, harnes, and wildlife all share this pathway. As you travel along it and enjoy the spectacular scenery, share the path by doing the following:

Yield To:  Hiker
 If you're on a trail, you should yield to all other trail users. If you're on a trail, you should yield to all other trail users who are approaching from the opposite direction.

Yield To:  Horse
 Horses are often the most vulnerable trail users. Yield to horses in a wooded area as they approach to avoid startling horses.

Wildlife

Wildlife is a great sight to see and enjoy. The area's natural beauty, scenic views, and recreational trails, in addition to the area's rich history, make it a great place to visit. The National Park Service is committed to protecting the area's natural resources.
